Application Form

(Please fill out the form below if you wish to enroll your child in the study support classes)

※Please read the following information carefully before applying

- The aim of the study support classes is to help children improve their level of Japanese, through doing homework and playing games together. (It is not a cram school.) A yearly payment of ¥500 is required.
- Children will be registered under insurance to cover against any injuries which may occur during the study support classes.

Please submit the ¥500 fee along with this form upon your child's first visit to the study support class.

- If a child has an accident whilst at the study support classes, a parent/guardian may be contacted to come and collect them.

If you wish to enroll, please send this form by fax or mail to the Cultural and International Affairs Section.

(It is also possible to bring this form with you the first time your child attends the study support classes.)
